SITUATION SUMMARY

City of Needles Severe Weather Incident, San Bernardino County (New)

Situation

On Tuesday, August 12, 2014 at approximately 1630 hours a severe thunderstorm settled over the City of Needles causing flooding and wind damage. The City of Needles reported a minimum of 50 downed power lines, damage to roofs, and multiple downed trees. A determination has yet to be made if this incident may be linked to the August Severe Weather Incident.

- The City is currently conducting Initial Damage Estimates.
- The City did not activate for this incident and they County does not plan to activate.

Shelters

- A shelter was established at the Needles Senior Center, 1699 Bailey Avenue; however, there were no overnight occupants and the shelter has since closed.

Utilities

- There were substantial power outages due to the storm. The electric line crew was able to get 98% of the system back up during the night though switching but in so doing the City's power redundancy has been severely compromised. Should there be another storm tonight there would be substantial and long lasting power outages in the City. The City has depleted the inventory stock and are reordering but are behind the curve. There more than 50 power poles that are down. Those will be addressed after the system is 100% back on line.

Road Closures

County Road Closures

- Pahaska Trail from Rio Vista Drive to North to Lakota Court in the area of Big River, no anticipated time for reopening.
- Five Mile Station Road from I-40 west to Highway 95 in the area of Needles, no anticipated time for reopening.

State Highway Closures

Per CalTrans, last night's monsoons have caused flooding and some road damage resulting in full closure to the following state highways:

- SR 62 is closed from Godwin Rd. (post mile 40) to Vidal Junction (post mile 125) for an unknown duration.
- Route 95 is closed from Five Mile Station Road (post mile 53) to Goff Road (post mile 63) for flooding and storm cleanup for an unknown duration.
- SR 177 is closed entirely from post mile 0 to 27 for storm cleanup for an unknown duration.

SITUATION SUMMARY

City of Needles Severe Weather Incident, San Bernardino County Cont. (New)

Proclamation

The City of Needles plans to submit a proclamation and have it ratified tonight, 08/13. The expectation is to have a sign copy to Cal OES tomorrow morning, 8/14.

The Cal OES Southern, Law, and Fire Duty Officers continue to monitor the situation and coordinate information.

Palo Verde Severe Weather Incident , Imperial County (New/Final)

On 08/12/14, Palo Verde, a small unincorporated community of 171 in northeast Imperial County, sustained a wide spread power outage due to storms in the region. Per the Cal OES Southern Region Duty Officer, power was restored to the community at approximately 0900 hours on 08/13. The Region continues to monitor the situation. There are currently no requests for assistance or unmet needs.

Los Angeles County Severe Thunderstorms, Los Angeles County (No Change)

- Los Angeles County Operational Area Proclaimed a Local Emergency due to the Summer Thunderstorms that began on August 03, 2014.
- Los Angeles County is working on IDE assessments for the Summer Thunderstorm event, no information available at this time.

Background: Beginning on August 3, 2014 Los Angeles County was impacted by severe thunderstorms affecting the San Gabriel Mountain and Foothill communities and unincorporated areas. The heavy rains resulted in the damage of property, triggered debris and mudflows, and rockslides, that blocked culverts, damaged bridges, and caused the closure of transportation routes. Several County Departments were engaged in response and recovery activities. The heavy rains had a negative impact on local businesses, individuals, and transportation routes.

Port of Oakland Protest (No Change)

Oakland Police Department (OPD) is expecting 500-1000 demonstrators on Saturday, August 16, 2014 to protest the ships partly owned by the government of Israel. Although no law mutual aid has been requested, the Port has reached out to Alameda County Sheriffs Office (ACSO) for Law Enforcement support. The distinction is that this is a planned event and therefore not technically mutual aid. OPD is planning on having their Department Operations Center (DOC) open on Saturday. The protest is planned to occur, even if the ships cancel their arrival to the Port. Cal OES Law Enforcement Branch and the Cal OES Ports and Harbors representative continue to monitor the situation and coordinate information.

WEATHER

WEATHER SYNOPSIS BY REGION:

NORTHERN CALIFORNIA:

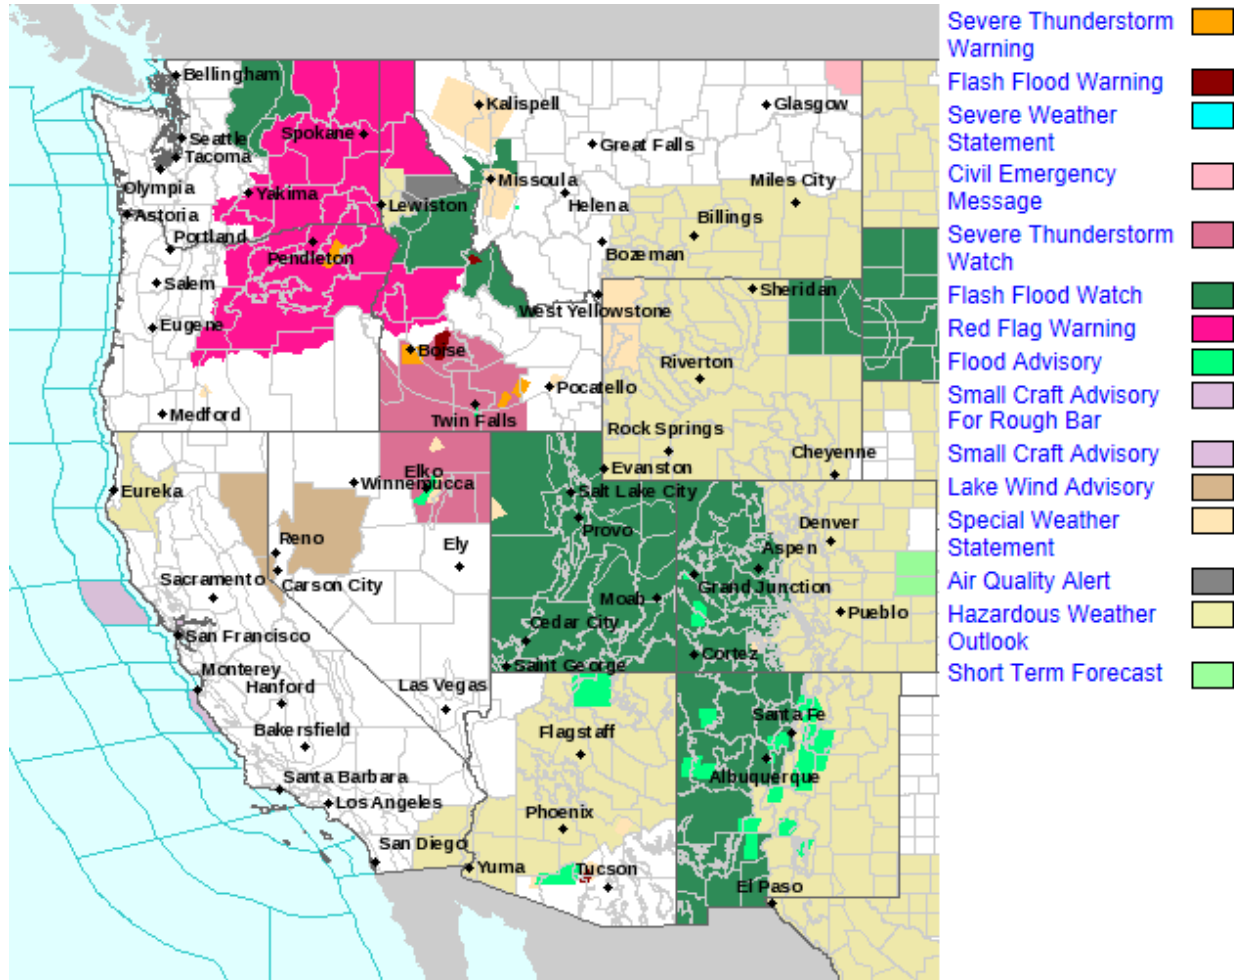

One system departed Northern California to the north-northeast around midday yesterday, after bringing about 450+ lightning strikes in and near Modoc County. Meanwhile, a deeper Pacific low approached from the west late Tuesday, and today its center will track east-northeast near the north end of California and back up into Oregon. This is a cold frontal system, and it is producing rain or showers, along with a few embedded wet thunderstorms, to primarily the northwest mountains today. This precipitation will affect several of our far Northwest California fires. Associated with the low pressure, we will have a second afternoon of moderate to stronger southwest gradient winds from near the Cascade/Sierra eastward (12-20 mph, gusts 28-40 mph). The exit of the today's low up into central Oregon by early Thursday, will start to bring increased sunshine and west to northwest post-frontal breezes Thursday. High pressure aloft should become strong enough to produce a warmer drier air mass, that is sufficiently stable air to generally preclude Northern California thunderstorm chances for at least 5 days starting Thursday.

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA:

An area of low pressure will move across northern California today and into the Pacific Northwest on Thursday. This will allow a dry southwest flow aloft to prevail across the local region during the next several days. There will still be a few thunderstorms across the eastern deserts this afternoon, otherwise thunderstorms are not expected anywhere within the Geographic Area after today. It will be breezy to locally windy from the west across the higher elevations of the Sierra, as well as across the Antelope Valley today and Thursday with speeds in the 15-30 mph range. Elsewhere, winds will generally be southwest to northwest 5 to 15 mph. The marine layer will be more influential today and Thursday with a greater coverage of low clouds and fog across the coastal areas as compared to recent days. This will also help to lower temperatures across the inland areas during the next couple of days with mid 80s to mid 90s expected in the valleys. High pressure over northern Mexico will gradually expand across the Southwestern United States in the coming days with a slow warming trend expected across the inland areas Friday through the weekend. Daytime highs during this time will be well into the 90s across the most of the inland valleys, with 80s to low 90s in the mountains. Also, minimum humidity values will drop into the teens over most of the inland areas with fair to poor overnight recovery expected. The marine layer will decrease this weekend with lesser amounts of low clouds and fog during the night and morning hours along the coast. The latest trends in the computer models are now suggesting that high pressure will expand into southern and central California next week with temperatures likely to rise to above normal levels across the inland areas by Monday or Tuesday.

Situational Summary

On January 17, 2014 Governor Edmund G. Brown proclaimed a State of Emergency and directed state officials to take all necessary actions to prepare for drought conditions. The State Operation Center (SOC) is activated to implement objectives in support of the Governor's priorities. The lack of winter rain and snowfall has resulted in extremely dry conditions in many parts of the State. Reservoir levels are down significantly from where they should be on average for this time of year. If conditions continue severe impacts to municipal water supplies, agriculture (plants and livestock) and firefighting capabilities are likely in store for the State over the next few months. Negative economic impacts will also result.

The drought could result in severe impacts to the municipal water supplies, wells, agriculture (plants and livestock) and firefighting capabilities for several months. The SOC continues to be activated to monitor the situation statewide, and support regional and local operational areas.

- Current Reservoir Levels continue to decline. Levels as of August 11th : Don Pedro 43%; Exchequer 19%; Folsom Lake 40%; Lake Oroville 34%; Millerton Lake 49%; New Melones 25%; Pine Flat 12%; San Luis 20%; Lake Shasta 33%; Trinity Lake 33%; Pyramid Lake 93%; and Castaic Lake 46%.

- Emergency Drinking Water Procurement and Distribution Planning Guidance (rev. May 2014)

Significant changes have occurred to the structure of California's state government organization. Rapid advances in systems, science, and technology have helped emergency managers improve coordination, forecasting, and situational awareness. Because of these changes, the Multi-Agency Emergency Response Procedures for Potable Water Procurement & Distribution document has been replaced by the Emergency Drinking Water Procurement and Distribution Planning Guidance. The intent of this guidance document is to clarify the roles and responsibilities of the stakeholders involved in locating, procuring, and delivery of emergency drinking water¹ to populations in California. Consequently creating a framework for agencies and organizations to work together to enhance preparedness.

- State Board Mandatory Conservation Regulations Now in Effect: The state's first-ever emergency regulations mandating urban water conservation became effective will be in effect until April 25, 2015.

- The 2014 Governor Drought Task Force continues to meet regularly to take actions that conserve water and coordinate state response to the drought.

- Cal OES continues to gather drought-related costs from state agencies and local governments.
